

Dr. Sonata Mačiulskytė

Dr. Sonata Mačiulskytė is a Doctor of Social Sciences, specializing in curriculum development and the creation and implementation of quality assurance systems in education. She holds Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Political Science and obtained her doctoral degree in Social Sciences, with a focus on Social Work, from the University of Lapland in Finland in 2014.

With 24 years of professional experience in the higher education sector, Sonata Mačiulskytė has amassed expertise in curriculum development, implementation, improvement, the development of quality assurance systems, and the formation of education policies.

Dr. Mačiulskytė has served as a member of national strategy and legislation development working groups in higher education, Vice-Rector for Studies at Klaipėda University, and Chair of the Studies Committee of the Conference of Lithuanian University Rectors. Additionally, she holds the position of Vice-Chair of the Academic Committee of the European University Alliance EU-CONEXUS.

In addition to her professional activities, Sonata Mačiulskytė actively contributes to discussions on quality assurance in education and higher education topics in both national and international contexts.