

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Nijolė Galdikienė

Assoc. Prof. dr. Nijolė Galdikienė in 2002 gained education bachelor's qualification at Klaipeda University and in 2005 graduated Blekinge Institute of Technology (Sweden) and gained a Master diploma in Nursing. 2016 defended her doctoral dissertation in the field of Health Sciences (Nursing) at the University of Tampere (Finland). Since 2000 he has been working at Klaipeda State College. She worked at the Faculty of Health Sciences as the Head of the Nursing Department, Vice-Dean. Since 2010 was Deputy Director for Strategic Development and since 2017 works as a Deputy Director for Studies and Research. She has an extensive experience in preparing self-evaluation reports for study and institutional external evaluation and accreditation. N. Galdikienė regularly participates in international conferences and internships abroad, conducts research. Participated in many international projects related to ensuring and improving the quality of studies. 2015-2021 was a member of the Lithuanian Higher Education Council.