

Simonas Razminas

Simonas Razminas graduated Bachelor degree in Informatics Engineering (2004) and Master degree in Management of Information Technology (2006) at Kaunas University of Technology (KTU), faculty of Informatics.

He has solid experience in software development and management in various Lithuanian and international companies. At the moment he is working as Vice President of Engineering at Flo Health LTU. Simonas has experience in ERP, antipiracy, digital advertising, telematics and fleet management domains. His experience covers big data and high load multiregional systems and products.

Simonas Razminas is one of the founders of Agile Lithuania. 2014-2020 Simonas was member of EQANIE accreditation committee.