

Daiva Bartninkienė

Education expert, lecturer with experience in various segments of education

She has worked as a teacher, school principal, specialist of the municipal education department, head of the training center, head of the educational literature publishing house, head of the network of educational institutions. Daiva has experience in developing training programs for adults and children, and educational marketing and communication strategies.

She works as an expert of the Department of Business Environment and Economics of the Lithuanian Confederation of Industrialists.

Member of the Council of the Center for Quality Assessment in Higher Education (since 2021).

Daiva Bartninkienė is a member at the BusinessEurope Social Affairs Committee's Education and Training Working Group, Education Committee of Business at OECD, and as member of Lithuanian Employment Service Council.