

Dr. Jolanta Bareikienė

Jolanta Bareikienė graduated from Vilnius State Pedagogical Institute, Faculty of Foreign Languages, where she obtained her qualification as an English teacher and later Master's degree in Education from Šiauliai University. Jolanta Bareikienė has been working at Kauno kolegija/University of Applied Sciences since 2003. She is Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Education, a lecturer and Chair of the Committee of Studies and Applied Science (Arts) of the Academic Council. Jolanta Bareikienė participates in the preparation and development of study programmes. Regularly raises qualifications in Lithuania and abroad. In 2015, she qualified as an auditor for linguistic communication.

In 2011 - 2016 participated in an expert evaluation of Lithuanian colleges and evaluation of new study programmes. 2019 - 2020 member of the Expert Group preparing the study field descriptor on Linguistics, Literature, Translation, Language Studies.