

Assoc. prof. Kristina Puleikiene

She has a Bachelor's degree in Management (2001) and a Master's degree in Management and Business Administration (2003) at Klaipeda University. Currently she is studying in the joint doctoral study programme of Economics (Vytautas Magnus University, Siauliai University, Aleksandras Stulginskis University, ISM Management and Economics University, Mykolas Romeris University). Research area is capital structure modelling, increasing the business value of companies in the maritime sector.

Kristina Puleikiene is a Head of the Department of Economics at the Lithuania Business University of Applied Sciences since 2004 and is curating study programmes such as Economics, Business Enterprises' Economics and Accounting. She teaches financial and economic disciplines at the Lithuania Business University of Applied Sciences and has worked at other higher education institutions in Klaipeda. She actively participates in the international exchange programmes, internships and project activities, gives presentations at the international conferences at Lithuanian and European universities. In 2013 she was an expert in the field of evaluation and recognition of candidates' competences in the field of accounting study in the project "Development and implementation of the system of formalization of competences acquired informally in the Western Lithuanian Business College and partners' institutions". She constantly improves qualification in various courses, trainings and seminars, prepares scientific articles and methodological tools.

Kristina Puleikiene is a member of the Academic Council of the Lithuania Business University of Applied Sciences since 2005. She is an internal auditor of the Lithuania Business University of Applied Sciences management quality system since 2012. Kristina Puleikiene has extensive experience in preparing and organizing self-assessments of institution's activities and study programmes, and she is a member of various study programmes' committees.